

007 BOND NIGHT

DRESS TO KILL themed Party

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF SPYS, HIGH LIVING & ESPIONAGE!
DRESS TO KILL AND ENJOY OUR 007 BOND THEMED PARTY.

The scene is set as your guests enter the function via a military themed derelict set in the guise of Checkpoint Charlie. This three-dimensional scene includes a themed bond entranceway, authentic military vehicle, sentry box and a dramatic derelict building backdrop.

Character actors in the guise of military border guards man the checkpoint. Using loudhailers the guards will ask the guests to have their papers ready for inspection. Guests will handover their passport style invitation to allow the guards verify their credentials. Once all is in order the passport will be stamped and returned to the guest signalling that the guards have cleared them for access to the main event.

Guests will be directed to the function bar via a darkened camouflaged tunnel. As they walk along themed bond music and sound effects will play in the background. The walls of the tunnel will be dressed with military props. The guests expectations of what lies ahead will be heightened by the use of dramatic theatrical smoke and lighting throughout the tunnel walkway.

The Champagne Drinks Reception Area will be dressed with elegant black drape overlaid with prop casino chips; playing cards and life sized black and silver James Bond Silhouette Caricatures. Themed bond backdrops will be position around the bar.

The doors into the Dining Area will be dressed with oversized three-dimensional, seven foot high, cocktail glasses and signage depicting the various names of the bond movies.

At the appropriate time, the border guards will open the doors and invite guests to join them for a bond night to remember. Each dining table will be named after a bond film and will be decoratively dressed with black linen. Centred on each table will be a three dimensional themed Bond movie centrepiece set on a reflective mirror and dressed with nightlights. As guests enter for dinner, the bond theme will play through the stage sound system. The walls will be dressed in black drape. Around the room oversized, ten foot high, replica bond movie posters will be displayed.

The stage will comprise of a themed Bond Eye backdrop replicating the opening sequence of the bond movies, life-size caricatures of Bond Silhouettes, 007 logos as well as six foot high theatrical flame effects positioned either side.

During dinner guests can listen to the bond movie score and watch clips from the bond movies all under the watchful eye of the military border guards. Guns, Gadgets, fun and more, this night will leave you shaken and stirred but remember to Dress to Kill!
