

WELCOME
Viva
LAS VEGAS

Ladies and Gentlemen...

ELVIS

...has entered the building!

Welcome to the gambling capital of the world that is Las Vegas Nevada. Guests enter this razzmatazz event by strolling along the main thoroughfare of the city, the Las Vegas Boulevard. To the background sounds of the Elvis hit Viva Las Vegas this famous walkway is replicated by prop skyline facades depicting the famous gambling hotels. These include The Mirage, The Luxor, Caesars Place, The Venetian and the Flamingo Hotels. To set the scene mix and mingle oversized headed characters in the guise of Sammy Davis Jnr., Frank Sinatra and the King himself Mr Elvis Presley will welcome guests to this gambling Mecca.

Our beautiful fully costumed Las Vegas Showgirls offer guests complimentary casino chips and invite them to the Las Vegas Casino area where prior to dinner guests can gamble their luck away in true High Roller Fashion. The Las Vegas casino comprises blackjack and roulette tables all manned by professional croupiers. As guests sip cocktails, they can try their luck to win a prize as they are entertained by music from The Rat Pack.

The main function room is creatively dressed to take you on journey of the history of Las Vegas, its stars and its gambling attraction. The venue walls are awash with elegant black drape and framed ten foot high artwork pieces depicting the performance legends of Las Vegas including imagery of Tom Jones, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jnr. Around the room on its pillars and flown from the ceiling are oversized neon lit replicas of the Strip's most famous hotel signs.

Each table is decoratively finished in colour themed linen with a matching Las Vegas themed table centre piece or balloon bouquet. Of course there's plenty of neon and lots of atmospheric lighting to set you in a scene direct from the Las Vegas Strip. Throughout dinner the legends of Las Vegas mix and mingle with guests as they watch the history of Las Vegas on audio visual screens. Once dinner has concluded its time to announce the winners of The Las Vegas Casino and the presentation of prizes follows. Dancing for the evening then kicks off as the King of Rock'n'Roll arrives, upon his Harley Davidson motorbike, to join his twelve piece band live on stage for two hours of entertainment to remind your guests that "Ladies and Gentlemen Elvis Has Entered the Building". If you see it once you'll never be the same again...
